Mr. Galin:

This letter is to answer and confirm your inquiry as to the fraud conviction of David S. Ramus, who was indeed convicted on the fraud charges as you will see in the copy of the enclosed news release that we make public.

I do understand that you have a personal and financial involvement in this case aside from a news-related interest. I have enclosed at your request, copies of news articles that have appeared in relation to the case and may give you more insight as to other victims who were called to come to Atlanta to testify. Of course, the United States Attorneys Office cannot verify the accuracy of outside news reports, but again can confirm the conviction, in the Ramus case.

Thank you for your interest. If there are any other matters with which you need assistance, we will be happy to assist you.

Sincerely,

Patrick Crosby

Re: United States v. David S. Ramus
1:95-CR-199

Dear Mr. Galin:

As you may already be aware, David S. Ramus was sentenced on February 23, 1996. He was committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons for a term of 30 months. Upon release from prison he will be on supervised release for three years.

Restitution that was ordered by the court is being appealed by the Trustees in U.S. Bankruptcy Court.

You are entitled to certain information regarding this defendant while he is in federal custody. This information includes notice of furloughs, final release, as well as any escape. If you wish to receive notification, please complete (either printed or typed) one copy of the enclosed form and return it to this office in the pre-addressed postage paid envelope. You may keep the other copy for your records. If you participate in this program, you should notify the Bureau of Prisons, 320 1st Street, N.W., Room 531, Washington, D.C. 20534 directly if you change your address and/or telephone number.
